Vital Organs Answer Sheet

Brain
Q: How much does the human brain weigh?
A: ______________________________________________________________

Q: What is the name of the science study of the brain and nervous system?
A: ______________________________________________________________

Q: What is the very large nerve bundle that connects the two cerebral hemispheres of the brain?
A: ______________________________________________________________

Lungs
Q: How many lobes does the right lung and left lung have respectively?
A: ______________________________________________________________

Q: What is the name of the little flap of tissue that guards the entrance to the windpipe?
A: ______________________________________________________________

Q: Name at least three lung diseases.
A: ______________________________________________________________

Heart
Q: The average heart pumps about how many gallons a day?
A: ______________________________________________________________

Q: Normal heart sounds are described as "Lub-Dub", what is causing these sounds?.
A: ______________________________________________________________

Q: How many chambers does a human heart have?
A: ______________________________________________________________

Kidneys
Q: Approximately how much waste products and extra water do the kidneys removed in a day?
A: ______________________________________________________________

Q: List at least three functions of the kidneys.
A: ______________________________________________________________

Q: What are the size and shape of the kidneys and where are they located?
A: ______________________________________________________________
Liver

Q: How much does a human adult liver weigh?
A:______________________________________________________________

Q: In regards to liver disease what causes jaundice?
A:______________________________________________________________
W:______________________________________________________________

Q: What percentage of a liver is needed for the liver to regenerate into a whole liver?
A:______________________________________________________________